Office of Medical History & Archives

During FY2014, the Library sponsored a series of events designed to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the University of Massachusetts Medical School through public programs, research, and exhibits. The Library also played a key role in the Sydney B. Altman Cancer Research Library Teams.